Zephaniah 3: 14-20

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel!

Rejoice and exult with all your heart O daughter Jerusalem!

The LORD has taken away the judgments against you, he has turned away your enemies.

The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem:

Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The LORD, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival.

I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it.
I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD.

Philippians 4: 4-7

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Luke 3: 7-18

John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our ancestor'; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

And the crowds asked him, "What then should we do?" In reply he said to them, "Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise." Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?" He said to them, "Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you." Soldiers also asked him, “And we, what should we do?” He said to them, “Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.”

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, “I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.” So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Anglican Trust for Women and Children

Over the 6 years that Grant has been our vicar, parishioners have donated gifts and toys to the Anglican Trust for Women and Children for them to disperse to needy families at Christmas time. Given that ATWC requires these gifts early in December so they can be wrapped and distributed in time for Christmas Day, lockdown has thwarted our collection this year. Instead, Vestry is suggesting that parishioners may like to make a cash donation to ATWC for them to spend on providing families, especially children, with gifts and special treats at Christmas time. This can be done by making an online donation directly to ATWC (see account details below) or by placing a monetary donation into the offering bag in one of the yellow envelopes available at the back of the church and on the foyer table. If you are part of our envelope offerings you can include any donation to ATWC as part of your regular giving. Just include your envelope number as a reference on the bank statement, or on the yellow envelope, and we will make sure this donation is transferred to ATWC and also included in your annual parish giving for your tax rebate.
